About the Journal

The FinnRebus Quarterly is an online double-blind peer-reviewed quarterly journal of law, economy and development. It intends to provide an online, open-access platform, for academicians, policy framers, and researchers to share their thoughtful research works. The FinnRebus accepts original research works conducted through theoretical, empirical as well as mixed methods highlighting the relationship between law, legal system (national or international); economy (national/international); economic growth, and the developments in national/international trade or finance, etc.

How to Submit Manuscript

1. The research work submitted for publication should be under the following category-
 - (a) Article- 4000 to 8000 words (excluding the references);
